Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.

TOWNSHEND.

Whitehall, April 9, 1725.

Whereas since the Beginning of July last, several small Silver Dishes have been lost from His Majesty's Palaces of St. James's, Kensington, and Windsor, with the King's Arms and G. R. or A. R. engraven thereon; His Majesty is graciously pleased, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the stealing or detaining the said Plate, to promise His Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, to any of the Officers of the Board of Greencloth, or Silver Scullery, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

TOWNSHEND.

And as a further Encouragement, the Officers of the Board of Greencloth do promise to the Person who shall make such Discovery, a Reward of Thirty Pounds to be paid on such Conviction as aforesaid.
